Acknowledgements

Thank you to my family for supporting my crazy dream to be a professional musician. To Mom and Dad for all the piano lessons, bassoon lessons, auditions, rehearsals, performances, and frequent trips to and from New Orleans that probably weren't what you had in mind for my future, but I'm grateful that you were with me all the way. To my siblings, Carina and Andrew, for all the jams and putting up with my lame music trivia. I would also like to acknowledge my grandparents, ông nội and bà ngoại, who I have dearly missed while I've been away at college.

Thank you to all my teachers who inspire me to teach. To Mr. Ware, Mr. Pacheco, and Mr. Hernandez-Ching for your constant guidance and encouragement. I would not be the musician and teacher I am today without you all. To my former bassoon teachers, Ben Roidl-Ward and Ben Atherholt, for filling in so many of the gaps I had learning the bassoon on my own. And to my current teacher, Jack Peña, for pushing me to be a better musician. This recital would have been impossible to put together without you.

Thank you, Jonathan, for accompanying my recital. It has been an absolute joy working with you.

Thank you to my friends who are joining me on this program. To Nate and Myles for satisfying my desire to play in a bassoon chamber ensemble, especially a tune that means a lot to me. I'm grateful to have you both perform my work. To Taylor, Liam, and Yanissa for being amazing musicians and friends. It's been an honor making music with you all. And finally, to Reneé for being my best friend and roommate. I wouldn't have survived this recital and everything else without you.
