About Extended

Extended is Oscar Rossignoli (piano), Matt Booth (bass), and Brad Webb (drums). They all compose for the group with the particular musical personalities of the group foremost in mind, an approach that has thrilled audiences both locally and worldwide. Their upcoming 2022 release, "Without Notice", is their third full-length album of all original compositions. Their debut LP from 2017 on Breakfast 4 Dinner records received praise for its distinctive compositions and dynamic group interplay. "Harbinger", their 2019 release on Origin Records, garnered critical acclaim and radio play across the country and was named by Offbeat Magazine as one of the year-end Top 50 Best Albums of Louisiana Music. Now, with four years of development as an ensemble and the solid momentum from their first two records, Extended has created a truly world class project with pristine sound quality, showcasing 11 diverse new songs which exhibit a new attitude and focused maturity.
