About the Conductors

Colonel John R. Bourgeois, USMC (Ret), was the 25th director of “The President’s Own” United States Marine Band. His acclaimed career spanned nine presidential administrations—from Presidents Eisenhower to Clinton. A native of Louisiana, Colonel Bourgeois is a graduate of Loyola University in New Orleans. He joined the Marine Corps in 1956 and entered “The President’s Own” in 1958 as a French hornist and arranger. Named director in 1979, Colonel Bourgeois was promoted to his present rank in June 1983. He retired on July 11, 1996. As director of “The President’s Own,” Colonel Bourgeois was music advisor to the White House. He selected the musical program and directed the band in its traditional place of honor at the U.S. Capitol for four Presidential inaugurations, a Marine band tradition dating to 1801. He regularly conducted the Marine band and the Marine Chamber Orchestra at the White House, appearing there more frequently than any other musician in the nation. Among the many honors and awards Colonel Bourgeois has received are the 1986 Phi Beta Mu Outstanding Bandmaster Award and the 1987 Kappa Kappa Psi Distinguished Serve to Music Award for “contributions to the growth and development of modern college and university bands.”

Dr. Serena Weren is the Director of Bands and Associate Professor of Music at Loyola University New Orleans. She earned her DMA in wind band conducting from Arizona State University under the direction of Gary W. Hill and Wayne Bailey. She also holds a BA in music and geology from Franklin & Marshall College, a BM in music education from Temple University, and a MM in instrumental conducting and a MMed both from Arkansas State University. Previously, she was the Director of Bands at Middletown High School South and River Plaza Elementary School in New Jersey. Dr. Weren is an active guest conductor and clinician for concert and marching bands across North America and has worked with music festivals in Austria and Guatemala. Her current research interests include investigating our social and physiological relationship to music making and improving health and wellness knowledge through her work with the Athletes and the Arts. She has presented at Midwest, PAMA, CBDNA and CMS conferences and is an active member of CBDNA, NBA, NAFME, PAMA, CMS, and WASBE.
