Acknowledgements

First, I would like to thank everyone at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church for graciously allowing me to perform in their beautiful space. I would like to extend a special thank you to Ms. Miller for helping coordinate this recital and to Ms. Rey for operating the live-stream. Next, I need to thank my incredible family. Thank you for your unconditional and unceasing love, generosity, and guidance. To my best friends, thank you for always offering your encouragement, support, and wisdom. I am very grateful for my first piano teachers: Lauren Ford, Kate Sawyer, Maria Burkett, and Tammy Turnage. Thank you for instilling in me a passion for music and equipping me with the knowledge necessary to continue my studies as an undergrad. You all still motivate me everyday!

To all the music faculty at Loyola, thank you for teaching me, challenging me, and inspiring me. Nadja, thank you for teaching me how listen and communicate with the musicians around me. Thank you also for helping me become more confident when sharing music with others. Dr. Hsu, thank you for always expecting me to do my best. Thank you for teaching me how to listen carefully and think critically. Lastly, thank you for your patience. Finally, I want to thank everyone watching this recital for their time and support.
